SUFFOLK FARMERS' MARKET
ANNOUNCES RETURN OF WALK-THROUGH MARKET

SUFFOLK, VA (June 30, 2020) Suffolk Tourism is pleased to announce that the Suffolk Farmers' Market-To-Go is transitioning back to the traditional Farmers' Market held under the open-air pavilion located at 524 North Main Street in Downtown Suffolk.

Beginning on Saturday, July 4, 2020, from 9 a.m. until 1 p.m., customers may shop and make on-site purchases from vendors offering garden-fresh fruits and vegetables, baked goods, jams and jellies, meats and poultry, flowers and other horticulture items, plus personal care products. Customers may also continue to contact vendors directly to pre-order items for Saturday pick-up.

In accordance with the Governor's "Best Practices Guidelines," customers walking through the Market are asked to wear facemasks and maintain physical distance between parties. A handwashing station and hand sanitizer will be readily available for Market goes. No one with a fever or symptoms of COVID-19, or known exposure to a COVID-19 case in the prior 14 days, is permitted in the Suffolk Visitor Center or Farmers Market.

The Market will feature arts and crafts vendors and other merchants at a later date. Live entertainment and children's programming will resume when deemed safe for the public to attend such gatherings.
