POLICE INVESTIGATING STOLEN VEHICLE INCIDENT

SUFFOLK, VA (December 28, 2020) – Suffolk Police are investigating a stolen vehicle incident which occurred at the 7-Eleven store located in the 6400 block of Hampton Roads Parkway last night, Sunday, December 27, 2020. Emergency Communications was notified of the incident at 10:31 p.m.

The victim reportedly went inside the store and left his vehicle running and unlocked. Another vehicle pulled up to the store, someone got out and drove off with the victim's car. During the time when the vehicle was being stolen, a subject reportedly fired a gun with the projectile hitting the front glass of the store. No one was injured in the incident. The vehicle was later found by Virginia State Police in Chesapeake, Virginia.

The incident remains under investigation.
