MAN ARRESTED IN CHILD ABUSE CASE

SUFFOLK, VA (March 3, 2021) Suffolk Police have arrested a man following a child abuse investigation that began on November 22, 2019, after a now 12-year old female was observed by school personnel with obvious physical injuries.

Following preliminary investigation, Edell Aleksander Young, age 30, of Chesapeake, was arrested on March 1, 2021, on multiple charges including Abduction & Kidnapping (2 counts) due to the methods used to physically restrain the child; Aggravated Malicious Wounding; Abuse and Neglect of Children (3 counts); and Cruelty and Injuries to Children (3 counts). Mr. Young is currently in the custody of the Western Tidewater Regional Jail. Mug shot attached.

Child Protective Services staff assisted in the investigation.
