POLICE RESPOND TO INCIDENT AT HIGH SCHOOL

SUFFOLK, VA (September 24, 2021) Suffolk Police responded to a disturbance at Lakeland High School in the 200 block of Kenyon Rd during a high school football game this evening, Friday, September 24, 2021.

Suffolk Police Officers working security at the Lakeland High School football game responded to a disturbance involving spectators at the event at approximately 8:40 p.m. Officers were able to address the situation, which contrary to some social media posts did not involve a shooting. During this time, the decision was made to cancel the remainder of game. Officers are still currently on scene. There have been no injuries reported. Suffolk Police Officers routinely work security at high school sporting events at Suffolk Public Schools.

Any further inquiries regarding extracurricular or after school activities and events should be directed to Suffolk Public Schools.
