SUFFOLK POLICE INVESTIGATING STABBING AND ROBBERY INCIDENT

SUFFOLK, Virginia (January 7, 2022) Suffolk Police are investigating a stabbing incident also involving a robbery which occurred in the 200 block of Pinner Street, yesterday, Thursday, January 6, 2022. Emergency Dispatch was notified of the incident at 3:19 p.m.

An Officer responded to Sentara Obici Hospital as the victim was transported by private vehicle to that location due his injuries which are considered serious by not critical. The victim was later transported to another area hospital.

Officers located the crime scene in the 200 block of Pinner Street and spoke with a female victim who reported that she and the other male victim had come in contact with an unknown male inside her home. Following a verbal argument between the three parties, the two males left the home and continued the argument outside during which time the suspect reportedly stabbed the male victim. Before leaving the scene, the suspect took the female's phone. No other injuries were reported.

The incident remains under investigation and no further information is available at this time.
