POLICE INVESTIGATING COMMERCIAL ARMED ROBBERY

SUFFOLK, VA (January 19, 2022) – Suffolk Police are investigating a commercial armed robbery which occurred early this morning, Wednesday, January 19, 2022, at the 7-Eleven store located in the 800 block of Carolina Road. Emergency Communications was notified of the incident just after midnight.

Two suspects reportedly entered the store, walked around the store, and approached the counter at the register. Witnesses said both suspects were armed and that one of the suspects presented a firearm and demanded money from the registers. The suspects left on foot with an undetermined amount of money. The suspects were described as wearing all black clothing and face masks. No injuries were reported as a result of the incident.
