POLICE SEEK PUBLIC'S ASSISTANCE IN LOCATING MISSING ENDANGERED ADULT

SUFFOLK, VA (March 30, 2022) - The Suffolk Police Department is seeking the public's assistance in locating a missing endangered adult.

Tosha Yarnell Watkins, age 43, was last seen leaving her home in the 100 block of Niblick Circle around 4 p.m., Tuesday, March 29, 2022, driving a brown 2009 Saturn Outlook, license plate UYC6164. Watkins is described as a light skinned black female, between 5'9" and 6'1" tall, weighting approximately 160 pounds, with brown hair and brown eyes. She was last observed wearing a grey fuzzy jacket with a hood, a white Nike baseball cap and a black sweat pants with white dots on them.

Watkins' family is concerned for her safety as she has not been seen or heard from since leaving and her location is not known at this time.

If anyone knows the whereabouts of Ms. Watkins, please call 911 or your local Police Department.
