SCHOOL BUS INVOLVED IN MINOR ACCIDENT

SUFFOLK, VA (March 17, 2016) Suffolk Police responded this afternoon to the second minor accident involving a Suffolk Public School bus today.

Emergency Communications received the call at 5:23 p.m. advising of the accident that involved a bus transporting students from King's Fork High School and a Chevrolet Malibu.

Upon preliminary investigation it was found that the accident occurred in the 1200 block of B Street in the Beamon's Mill neighborhood when the bus driver backed up into the passenger vehicle as it was traveling on Beamons Mill Road. Both vehicles sustained what was described as very minor damage and both vehicles were able to drive from the scene. There were no injuries to the drivers of the vehicles or the approximately 40 students that were on board.

The bus driver was charged with Reckless Driving.
