SUFFOLK POLICE OFFICER GRADUATES FROM LEADERSHIP PROGRAM

SUFFOLK, VA (March 20, 2015) Suffolk Police Department Lieutenant Michael Wise graduated from the Professional Executive Leadership School (PELS) on March 19, 2015 at a ceremony held for the 36th Session of this prestigious training course.

The PELS program is an intensive three-week leadership education program conducted in cooperation with the University of Richmond. This program is designed for individuals who currently serve in command/executive level positions within their agencies. The objective of this program is to acquaint participants with best practices in leadership, challenge them to reflect upon their own leadership competency, and examine ways of achieving both personal and professional growth.

The University of Richmond School of Professional and Continuing Studies administers the PELS program. The classes are held at the University of Richmond's main campus in Richmond, Virginia, and classes are taught by faculty members from all five schools within the University of Richmond and Executive Education.
