UPDATE

SUFFOLK, VA (August 5, 2014) The Suffolk Police Department advises that David Christopher Gillespie, the focus of an extensive search after his vehicle was found crashed in a ditch on Lake Cohoon Road the morning of July 31, 2014, responded to Police Headquarters at Henley Place this morning. No additional details are available.

UPDATE

SUFFOLK, VA (July 31, 2014) Suffolk Police advise that they have discontinued the search in the area where David Christopher Gillespie's wrecked vehicle was found in a ditch on Lake Cohoon Road earlier this morning. Following an intensive search by Suffolk Police, Suffolk Fire & Rescue Search and Rescue Team, with the assistance of Regional Communications equipment as well as tracking dogs from the Hampton Police Department there was no indication that Mr. Gillespie was still in the area.

While Gillespie is considered missing, he does not fall into a suspicious or endangered category at this time.

If you should have any information as to his whereabouts, please contact the Suffolk Police Department at 757-923-2350, option 0.

POLICE SEEK PUBLIC'S ASSISTANCE IN LOCATING MISSING MAN

SUFFOLK, VA (July 31, 2014) The Suffolk Police Department is seeking the public's assistance in locating a man that has been missing since his vehicle was found in a ditch earlier this morning.

David Christopher Gillespie, age 40, whose last known address was in Chesapeake, has not been seen since his 4-door Buick was located after it apparently crashed in a ditch in the rural wooded area of the 2000 block of Lake Cohoon Road at approximately 1:00 a.m.

Gillespie is described as a white male, 5'8", 145 pounds with brown hair and blue eyes. Police have been in communication with his family, who advise they have not been contacted by Gillespie. Police are being assisted by the Suffolk Fire & Rescue Search and Rescue Team. While Gillespie is considered missing, he does not fall into a suspicious or endangered category at this time.

If you should have any information as to his whereabouts, please contact the Suffolk Police Department at 757-923-2350, option 0.
