SUFFOLK POLICE OFFICER HONORED WITH PELS LEADERSHIP AWARD

SUFFOLK, VA (November 24, 2014) At the November 19, 2014 graduation ceremony for the 35th Session of the Professional Executive Leadership School (PELS), Suffolk Police Department Captain James D. Buie was awarded the PELS Graduate Leadership Award.

This purpose of the PELS Graduate Leadership Award is to recognize one member of each PELS session who has demonstrated outstanding leadership abilities, exhibited a sincere desire for self-improvement, provided support and encouragement to other program participants, and who best represented their organization and profession. The recipient of this award is chosen by his/her peers and is presented with a plaque at the conclusion of the PELS session. In addition, the recipient's name and PELS session number is added to the PELS Graduate Leadership Award plaque on display at the administrative headquarters of the Virginia Association of Chiefs of Police and Virginia Police Chiefs Foundation.

The PELS program is an intensive liberal arts/humanities based leadership program conducted by the Virginia Police Chiefs Foundation in cooperation with the University of Richmond School of Professional and Continuing Studies.
