SUFFOLK POLICE SEEK SUSPECT IN THEFTS FROM MOTOR VEHICLES

SUFFOLK, Virginia (March 14, 2014) Suffolk Police are seeking the public's assistance in locating a suspect involved in larcenies from vehicles in the North Main Street area. The incidents have occurred from the second week in February 2014 until mid-March 2014 from the 100 block to the 1400 block of North Main Street.

There have been close to 20 reported incidents which have occurred in the time frame of 2 p.m. to after midnight. The offender appears to be targeting vehicles parked in shopping center and restaurants with some of the incidents involving a victim's personal items left in plain view inside the vehicle.

The subject is described as black male in his 30's, 6 foot tall, 200 pounds with slight facial hair.
