CITY OF SUFFOLK CITIZEN CENTRIC REPORT

SUFFOLK, VA (February 7, 2013) “Are we better off today than we were last year?” That is the question addressed and answered in a new City of Suffolk publication, the Suffolk Citizen Centric Report. Produced by the Suffolk Finance Department, this 4-page publication contains valuable information which demonstrates accountability to residents.

Information included notes Fiscal Year 2012 Accomplishments, revenue and expenditure details, and an economic outlook brief.

Copies of this report will be available in a number of City offices, libraries, and on the City’s website at <http://www.suffolkva.us/files/4113/6025/6055/CitizenCentricReport.pdf>

Citizens are asked to contact the Finance Department at financeEmail@suffolkva.us or by calling 757-514-7500 to note additional information they would like to see contained in this report.
