Youth Outdoor Program Nature Detective with Parks & Recreation

SUFFOLK, VA (January 29, 2016) Looking for a fun way to get the kids outdoors this winter? Suffolk Parks & Recreation invites children ages 4 and up to join park staff as they investigate several of nature's mysteries. Participants will look for clues and learn how to track animals, investigate insects, and figure out how all of the park wildlife survives the winter.

Sessions are as follows:

- February 6th, 10 a.m. to 11 a.m. - Insect Investigators - Sleepy Hole Park Ranger Station (4616 Sleepy Hole Road)
- March 5th, 10 a.m. to 11 a.m. - Winter Survival - Sleepy Hole Park Ranger Station (4616 Sleepy Hole Road)

Registration is free and available online at www.suffolkva.us/parks. For more information, contact Outdoor Recreation Specialist Suzette Vida at 757-538-4102.
