SUFFOLK PUBLIC LIBRARIES TO HOST FROGTOWN COLORING CONTEST

SUFFOLK, VA (March 7, 2014) In partnership with the Suffolk Center for the Cultural Arts, the Suffolk Public Library is holding a coloring contest featuring the frogs from the book "One Night in Frogtown" written by Philip Pelletier and illustrated by Verne Lindner.

Participants can pick up and complete a coloring page at any Suffolk Public Library location. Winning entries could take home a copy of the award-winning book or a family 4-pack of tickets to attend the play, "One Night in Frogtown" LIVE! The play is scheduled for March 29th at 2 p.m. at the Suffolk Center for Cultural Arts. Completed coloring pages must be turned in by March 20th.

For more information, contact Sarah Townsend, Outreach Services Manager, at the Morgan Memorial Library, 757-514-7320.
