CHARIS MENTAL HEALTH OPENS IN SUFFOLK

SUFFOLK, Virginia (June 29, 2017) – A new mental health practice has opened at 2470 Pruden Boulevard, in Suffolk. The office provides comprehensive mental health diagnosis, prevention and prescription treatment. To celebrate, they are hosting a Grand Opening – Ribbon Cutting ceremony on Friday, June 30th at 10 a.m. Vice Mayor Leroy Bennett will be on hand for the event.

Owner Dr. Lakeisha Keneti is a Nurse Practitioner with a long background of working with people with mental health concerns. Crystal Jones, another provider at the practice, will also be providing mental health care for patients of all ages. Their motto is “Our hopes are that providing mental health care in the community will subsequently decrease substance abuse and crime, while spreading the Love of Jesus Christ”.

Charis Mental Health accepts private pay and some forms of private insurance. Hours of operation are Monday through Friday, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., and Saturday and evening by appointment only. Call 757.922.8048 for more information.
