SUFFOLK POLICE ASK FOR PUBLIC'S HELP TO "STUFF THE POLICE CAR"

SUFFOLK, VA (November 9, 2017) Are you planning to get ahead of the rush and start your holiday shopping early this year? If so, you can make a big difference in the lives of children in the Suffolk area. The Suffolk Police Department will have a "Stuff the Police Car" event on Saturday, November 18th at two locations in Suffolk.

Suffolk Police will provide a police vehicle and volunteer Officers at the Walmart located at 6259 College Drive and 1200 North Main Street from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. on the day of the event.

The goal is to collect as many new and unwrapped toys as possible which will then be provided to Toys for Tots for local distribution. Help your community have a happy holiday season as part of the Suffolk Police Department's "Stuff the Police Car" event.
