ARREST MADE RELATED TO SOLICITATION OF PROSTITUTION FROM A MINOR

SUFFOLK, Virginia (March 28, 2017) Suffolk Police have made an arrest following their investigation related to a report of attempted solicitation of prostitution from a minor.

On March 6, 2017, Officers met with a juvenile male in reference to a complaint of a suspicious person. Upon preliminary investigation it was found that the juvenile had been approached while walking in the 200 block of Cullodan Street by an unknown black adult male subject who attempted to solicit him into sexual acts.

Randell Daughtrey, age 59, of the 300 block of N. 5th Street, was arrested on the charge of Solicitation of Prostitution From Minor Age 16 or older. The investigation remains ongoing at this time and the probability of additional charges are forthcoming.

Daughtrey is currently being held without bond at Western Tidewater Regional Jail.
