

Suffolk Commonwealth's Attorney's 8th Forensics Camp (FREE) For Youth Ages 12- 15 Years of Age

- ◆ Commonwealth's Attorney C. Phillips "Phil" Ferguson will host the 8th Suffolk Commonwealth's Attorney's Forensics Camp. It will be provided FREE to all participants.
- ◆ It is a one-week, 1/2 day program designed to teach students of Suffolk, ages 12-15, about observation, photography, evidence collection, preservation and testimony in court.
- ◆ The curriculum is designed to educate students on the study of forensics through criminal law.
- ◆ The camp will build a deeper understanding of the decisions made by the Suffolk Commonwealth's Attorney's Office because of forensic evidence obtained at the scene.
- ◆ Students will become increasingly aware and understand the realities of criminal cases through forensics.
- ◆ Forensic Experts and Assistant Commonwealth's Attorney's will be educating students on that kind of forensic evidence they look for when prosecuting cases.
- ◆ All students, ages 12-15, interested in attending this FREE class, June 17 - June 21, 2019, must apply for admission by June 6, 2019. The class size will be limited to 50 students. Space limited to ensure a complete understanding and hands on experience. Classes will be held each day from 8:30 am - 12:30 pm. For more information, please fill out an application on the Suffolk Commonwealth's Attorney's website or contact Joan R. Turner, Community Outreach Coordinator at 757-514-4379.
