Basic Photo Techniques Workshop with Shirley Whitenack

SUFFOLK (July 9, 2009) The Suffolk Museum is pleased to present a workshop entitled "Basic Photo Techniques" on Sunday, Sept. 13, 2009, at the Suffolk Museum, from 10:30 a.m. until 3:00 p.m.

What are those buttons and what do they do? Award winning photographer Shirley Whitenack will teach this basic photography class that will introduce you to the workings of your camera and tips for improving composition. Camera components will be identified and explained. Learn how to see and read light to get the correct exposure as well as how to use flash outdoors to improve your photos. Both digital and 35mm film cameras are welcome. Bring your camera, your instruction manual and your questions.

The fee for the workshop is $35.00. Please register at the Suffolk Museum or call 757-514-7284. Please make checks payable to the City of Suffolk and include two phone numbers on the check. The deadline for signup is Sept. 4, 2009. For more information call the Suffolk Museum at (757) 514-7284.
