SUFFOLK, Va. (August 10, 2009)– The Department of Public Works advises that on Monday, August 17th, the segment of N&W Avenue located near the N&W Ave./Pinner St./E.Washington St. intersection, will be closed for roadway improvements and the installation of infrastructure associated with new traffic lights planned for the vicinity of the Norfolk Southern railway crossing.

N&W Avenue is scheduled to be closed from Monday, August 17th to Friday, October 30th. When N&W Avenue re-opens the road will be designated as one way, with traffic allowed east bound.

This project is the off-site work related to the Health & Human Services Project.
