Renovations to the Chuckatuck Library are taking longer than originally anticipated. The reopening date has been rescheduled for November 17, 2008. Bookmobile services will continue to operate until that time.

Chuckatuck Library to Temporarily Close

SUFFOLK, Va. (September 26, 2008) – On October 2, 2008, the Chuckatuck Library will close for renovation and expansion. During the project, additional space will be opened for a new children's area, the subfloor will be repaired and the facility will be rewired and repainted.

During the library's closure, the City's bookmobile will provide library services on Tuesdays from 10am-1 pm at the Chuckatuck Library site, located at 5881 Godwin Blvd. The target date for the library to reopen is November 3, 2008.
