Local Business Seeks to Help Toys for Tots

SUFFOLK, Va. (December 12, 2008) – After learning that toys meant for needy children were stolen during a burglary earlier this month, a local business wants to help out. John and Pam King, the owners of two Fire House Subs locations in Suffolk, learned of the burglary to building that housed Toys for Tots donations from the local media. Pam who is also a firefighter and John, who is a retire police sergeant, contacted Toys for Tot to find out how they could assist.

On Sunday, December 14th from 12—4, Fire House Subs will be collecting toys for Toys for Tots. Anyone that donates a new toy, valued at $5 or more, during that time will receive a free medium sub.

Donations are being collected at both Suffolk Fire House Subs locations, 1201 North Main Street, suite 700 and 6255 College Dr. suite K. The media can contact John directly with any questions at 757-286-5823.
