Basic Computer Lessons Offered at North Suffolk Library

SUFFOLK, VA (September 7, 2011) – New to computers? Just need to learn the basics? Then join us for a pair of classes designed to get you plugged-in and online in no time.

Introduction to Computers is designed to teach the parts of a computer and help students become familiar with how the mouse and keyboard work. Registration is required and will begin on Tuesday, September 6, 2011. All participants must have a library card in good standing. The class will be held on Thursday, September 15, 2011 at 9:00 a.m. at the North Suffolk Library.

Introduction to the Internet will provide information on how to access the Internet and how to navigate different parts of websites. Basic computer knowledge is required for this class; such as how to operate a mouse, open and close windows, scroll, etc. By the end of this class, you should be able to find reputable websites of interest to you and navigate throughout them with ease. Registration is required and will begin on Monday, September 26, 2011. All participants must have a library card in good standing. The class will be held on Thursday, October 6, 2011 at 9:00 a.m. at the North Suffolk Library.

The North Suffolk Library is located at 2000 Bennetts Creek Park Road, Suffolk, VA 23435. For more information, call 514-7150.
