SUFFOLK INSPECTOR RECEIVES STATE AWARD

SUFFOLK, Virginia (October 20, 2011) Sean Brown, Zoning Inspector II for the City of Suffolk, recently received the award of 2011 Certified Zoning Officer by the Virginia Association of Zoning Officials (VAZO) at their annual Fall Conference which was held in Virginia Beach. This prestigious award is presented annually to a Certified Zoning Official who has performed as an exemplary employee in the field of zoning. The educational and certification program requirements for VAZO were initially endorsed and approved by the Virginia General Assembly in 2000 and since has become the benchmark and the official certification process in Virginia for attaining expertise in the zoning code compliance field.

A highly motivated and dedicated employee of the City of Suffolk, Sean Brown is committed to his peers, his position as a zoning inspector and to the citizens of the City of Suffolk.
