SUFFOLK, VA (November 11, 2011) City Attorney Edward Roettger announces his intention to retire from the City of Suffolk. Roettger has served as the City's attorney for the past eighteen years. Six and a half of those years were spent also acting as the City Council Clerk. He has served as a City Attorney for 33 ½ years, serving in Colonial Heights before coming to Suffolk.

Roettger is proud of the work accomplished with Council during his tenure and the staff he leaves behind. "I feel very privileged to have worked with such an exceptional team," Roettger advised. Mayor Linda Johnson advised that Roettger will be missed by Council members. "Ed has been important part of our team for many years now," Johnson stated. Mayor Johnson further advised that Roettger and Council will work together on a plan to ensure a smooth transition.
