SUFFOLK, VIRGINIA (September 2, 2008) The City of Suffolk will wrap up National Night Out 2008 with an awards ceremony on Thursday, September 4, 2008 at 6:30 p.m. in the Council Chambers. Chief of Police William Freeman and the City's National Night Out committee will recognize youth and community members that assisted in this year's efforts, as well as name the outstanding community and business from the August 5th event.

"The judges did not have an easy job this year" advised City Spokesperson Debbie George. "We had the largest participation in Suffolk's National Night Out history, with over 40 communities and businesses joining public safety to send a strong message that crime is not welcomed in our city, she added.
