SUFFOLK, Va. (December 17, 2010) – Suffolk Police are investigating a business burglary and are asking the public for assistance. During the early morning hours of December 8, suspect(s) unknown smashed out two front windows of Schewels Furniture Company, located in the 900 block of North Main Street.

Once inside the business, suspect(s) stole two large, flat screen televisions. The items were valued at $1,000 each.

Police have released photos that were caught by surveillance cameras of the vehicle the suspect(s) were operating. They are asking that anyone that may recognize the vehicle or have any information about this crime to contact Crime Line at 1-888-Lock-U-Up. When calling Crime Line, callers do not have to give their names or appear in court. If a caller's information leads to an arrest, the caller could qualify for a reward of up to $1,000.

Detective J. M. Protzeller is the lead investigator.
