SUFFOLK, VA (August 3, 2010) Suffolk Fire and Rescue battled a residential fire early this morning. The call to the 2600 blk. of Buckingham Rd. came in at midnight. When firefighters arrived on scene, they observed heavy smoke inside the single story house.

Firefighters were able to bring the blaze under control within approximately twenty minutes. The structure sustained moderate fire, smoke and heat damage.

There were no injuries. The cause of the fire is under investigation.

The family was aided by the Suffolk Chapter of the American Red Cross.

Battalion Chief Craig Abraham commanded the response.
