Master Gardeners Present Spring Garden Preparation Program

SUFFOLK, VA (February 28, 2011) Winter doldrums got you down? Anxious to see spring flowers in the area and in your own yard? The Suffolk Public Library has just the program for you!

Please join us at the North Suffolk Library on Tuesday, March 15, 2011, 10 a.m., as Master Gardener Shelly Sorgen presents "How Does Your Garden Grow," a dynamic new program on spring garden preparation. You will learn everything you need to know to have the best garden in the neighborhood. Bring your questions, and be ready to learn and enjoy!

The Master Gardener training program was created to meet an enormous increase in requests from home gardeners for unbiased, research-based horticultural information. Virginia Master Gardeners are individuals who act on behalf of the Virginia Cooperative Extension as volunteer educators within their communities after receiving specialized training in environmental horticulture.

For more details call 757-514-7150, or visit www.suffolk.lib.va.us. The North Suffolk Library is located at 2000 Bennett's Creek Park Road, Suffolk, 23434.
