FAMILY FUN DAYS AT THE SUFFOLK FARMERS' MARKET

SUFFOLK, VA: The 2011 Suffolk Farmers' Market season is in full swing in downtown historic Suffolk. Located beneath brightly striped tents adjacent to Seaboard Station Railroad Museum, visitors enjoy the Market's local fruits and vegetables, eggs and milk, jams, jellies and honey, fresh-cut flowers, plants and herbs, along with handcrafted gifts, jewelry and soaps. The Market and all associated activities are free and open to the public, including Family Fun Days. From 10 a.m. until 2 p.m., Saturday, July 16, kids of all ages will enjoy visiting the farm critters of the Teeny Tiny Farms' petting zoo. Musical entertainment will be provided by The Bluenotes, a rockin' band comprised of Suffolk's talented emergency personnel. The Market operates 9:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. on Saturdays and 3:00 p.m. until 6:00 p.m. on Wednesdays. For more information, contact the Suffolk Visitor Center at 757-514-4130 or log onto Suffolk-Fun.com.
