Suffolk Provides Shelter from Excessive Heat

SUFFOLK, VA (July 21, 2011) In light of today's excessive heat warning, the City of Suffolk will open several locations throughout the City to help those in need of shelter from the dangerously high temperatures.

The lobby of the Health and Human Services Building, located at 135 Hall Avenue, is available as a "cool off" site for the elderly. The site will remain open from 8:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. today and tomorrow.

The East Suffolk Recreation Center, located at 138 South 6th Street, will also be open from 6:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. today and tomorrow.

In addition, the Workforce Development Center, located at 157 North Main Street, will open the doors to its second floor from 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. today and tomorrow.
