Chinese New Year at the North Suffolk Library

SUFFOLK, VIRGINIA (December 20, 2010) Think again if you believe bringing in the New Year is over after January 1st! The North Suffolk Library Teen Time program is celebrating the Chinese New Year on February 2, 2011, from 6:30 until 7:30 p.m.

Join us as we celebrate the Chinese culture through a variety of activities. You will learn a few Chinese New Year traditions, paint Chinese characters and try Chinese treats. The program is free and no registration is required. Call 514-7150 for more information. The North Suffolk Library is located at 2000 Bennett's Creek Park Road in Suffolk.

About "Teen Time"

"Teen Time" is a program at North Suffolk Library designed exclusively for teens. "Teen Time" creates a special space at the library for teens to build a sense of community. The program takes place once a month and includes workshops, fun meetings and a teen book club.
