Suffolk Names New Assistant City Attorney

SUFFOLK, VIRGINIA (November 20, 2010)--The Office of the City Attorney is pleased to announce the selection of a new Assistant City Attorney. Minna Sankaran Sandwich started work with the City on November 16, 2010.

Prior to her new position, Mrs. Sandwich was an Assistant Commonwealth's Attorney for the City of Chesapeake, where she prosecuted felony and misdemeanor crimes that originated in Juvenile and Domestic Relations Court. She has also done work as a legal aid attorney and a public defender.

Suffolk City Attorney Edward Roettger, Jr. says, "Minna Sandwich brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to the City Attorney's Office. She will become an important member of our team, and her professional demeanor and commitment to the law and to Suffolk will serve City government well."

Mrs. Sandwich earned her Juris Doctor from the University Of Richmond School Of Law, and a Bachelor of Arts in Environmental Science and Policy from Duke University. Mrs. Sandwich grew up in the City of Suffolk, where she and her husband reside.
