Suffolk Fire Department Investigates Weekend Fire

SUFFOLK, VA (July 18, 2011) Suffolk Fire and Rescue are investigating a weekend fire that destroyed several outbuildings and caused minor damage to a home. Firefighters were dispatched to the 1000 block of Bracey Drive just before 2 p.m. Sunday for a report of smoke inside a residence.

Upon arrival, crews found several outbuildings and Conex boxes fully involved. Firefighters were able to bring the fire under control with minimum damage to the residence.

No one was home when the fire started, and no injuries were reported. Damage to the home is estimated at approximately $2,000. The cause of the fire is under investigation by the Suffolk Fire Marshal's Office.
