Police Seek Information on Pizza Delivery Robbery

SUFFOLK, Va. (May 5, 2009) – Suffolk Police are seeking information on the robbery of a pizza delivery person last month. Police advise that on April 14, at approximately 10:30 p.m. a driver for Dominos Pizza had just made a delivery and was in his vehicle at the intersection of Ashley Ave and Wellons Street when a male approached his driver side window. The subject produced a handgun, put it to the victim's head and demanded his money.

The driver was robbed of approximately $200.00 in currency and the Dominos car top pizza delivery sign.

The suspect is described as a black male, approximately 6'1" to 6'2", thin build wearing black jeans, a black hooded sweatshirt, black Timberland style boots, and wearing a black stocking cap style mask over his face.

Anyone that may have information is asked to contact Crime Line at 1-888-Lock-U-Up. Detective Herbert Bruce is the lead investigator.
