SUFFOLK GIRL DONATES TO ANIMAL SHELTER

SUFFOLK, Va. (June 27, 2009) Birthday cake, ice cream, hats, goodie bags, treats – and lots of presents. That's what most 9-year olds wish for their birthdays, but not Summer Wood. What did she want for her birthday? Dog food, leashes, collars, cat food, cat litter, toys, bowls and other items which were then donated to the Suffolk Animal Shelter.

How unusual in these times for a youngster to care more about the welfare of animals than herself. After her party, Summer's parents – Ron and Amanda Wood – helped her deliver these much needed items to the Suffolk Animal Shelter. Chief Animal Control Officer Meghann McGillvray-Chapin was delighted with the donations, as the shelter is always in need of assistance to improve the lives of animals at the shelter as they await adoption.

Summer's birthday wish came true, as she was able to help countless puppies, dogs, kittens and cats as they wait for their forever homes.
