Police Investigate Sexual Assault

SUFFOLK, Va. (December 4, 2008) – Suffolk Police are investigating a sexual assault in which the suspect posed as a repairman. Police advise that on December 3, 2008 at approximately 12:30 pm, a black male knocked on the door of a residence on King's Fork Rd. The subject told the female at that residence, who was home alone with her ten month old baby, that the landlord had sent him to do repairs to the home.

The subject was allowed into the residence where he sexually assaulted the twenty-five year old victim. A weapon was not displayed however the suspect implied that he had a knife. The child was not injured.

The suspect is described as a black, male, 5"8 or taller, 30-40 yrs old, heavy build, balding head with very short or receding hair and little on the sides. The suspect had what was described as bad, uneven bottom teeth and a gold capped tooth on top left side. The victim advised that the suspect had a squeaky voice. Suspect possibly left in a dark colored SUV, possibly an Explorer or Expedition. Anyone with information on this case is asked to contact the lead investigator, Detective Carlos Gonzalez, at 514-7945, or Crime Line at 1-888-Lock U Up.
