Police Seek Robbery Suspect

SUFFOLK, VA (August 4, 2011) Suffolk Police are looking for a man they believe is responsible for a recent armed robbery. Police have felony warrants on file for Daniel F. Brantley, age 38, of the 5600 block of Godwin Boulevard.

Brantley is charged with the August 2nd armed robbery of Win Wok restaurant on Holland Road. During that incident, a lone suspect entered the business brandishing a handgun. After demanding and receiving cash, the suspect fled in a greenish blue, four door vehicle. No one was injured.

Investigation by police led to warrants for armed robbery and use of a firearm in the commission of a felony against Brantley.

Detective J. Goben is the lead investigator on this case.
