SUFFOLK POLICE SEEK SUSPECTS IN SHOPLIFTING INCIDENT

SUFFOLK, VA (December 22, 2011) The City of Suffolk Police Department is asking for assistance to identify two suspects involved in a shoplifting incident at the Alcohol Beverage Control Store located at 6550 Hampton Roads Parkway on December 5, 2011 around 6:40 p.m.

The suspects entered the store, stole one bottle of Vodka and left the store without paying. When a store employee attempted to confront one of the subjects in the parking lot, the suspect threw the bottle and ran. A security guard observed one suspect running across a parking lot toward Hampton Roads Parkway while another one reportedly left the area in a red Sports Utility Vehicle.

Both suspects are described as black males, mid 30's, brown complexion and slim builds.

Officer Raul Hutson is the lead investigator.
