SUFFOLK, Va. (April 17, 2010) Suffolk Police are asking for assistance in identifying the suspect that broke into a local business. On April 11 at approx. 5:30a.m., police received a burglar alarm at the Neighborhood Supermarket, located in the 100 blk. of Wellons St.

Upon arrival officers discovered that entry had been gained to the business. Police found that over 100 packs of Newport cigarettes had been stolen.

Surveillance cameras in the business show a subject committing the crime. Suffolk Police are asking that anyone that might be able to identify the subject to call Crime Line at 1-888-Lock-U-Up. When calling Crime Line you do not have to give your name or appear in court. If a caller's information leads to an arrest, the caller could qualify for a reward of up to $1,000. Detective J. Antinarelli is the lead investigator on this case.
