NEWS RELEASE

SUFFOLK, VA (August 5, 2010) Suffolk Police are investigating an incident where a young woman was grabbed and assaulted while she was running. Police advise that just before 9 last night, a twenty-three year old woman was running on Lords Lane in the Suffolk Meadows neighborhood when she was grabbed and thrown to the ground. When the victim began to scream, the suspect struck her in the face several times. When vehicles approached the area, the suspect got up and ran. The victim did not sustain serious injuries.

The suspect is described as a black male, 5'5"-5'7", medium build, wearing a black t-shirt, and basketball shorts.

Anyone with information on this case is asked to contact Crime Line. When calling Crime Line, callers do not have to give their names or appear in court. If a caller's information leads to an arrest, the caller could qualify for a reward of up to $1,000.

Detective Herbert Bruce is the lead investigator.
