SUFFOLK, Va. (March 30, 2010) Suffolk police are looking for the suspect who robbed a convenience store on Friday.

Police advise that at approximately 10:30 p.m. Friday, a white male entered the Kangaroo convenience store, located in the 1100 blk. of Wilroy Rd. The subject brandished a gun at the clerk and demanded money. After receiving a small amount of money the suspect fled the business on foot. No one was injured in the robbery.

The suspect is further described as in his early 20s, 5'6" to 5'8", 140 to 155 pounds. He was wearing a black hoodie-type sweatshirt with the hood pulled up, a black ski mask, black pants and black shoes.

Anyone who has information is asked to call Crime Line at 1-888-LOCK-U-UP. Callers to Crime Line never have to give their names or appear in court, and may be eligible for a reward of up to $1,000. Detective David Burke is the case investigator.
