SUFFOLK POLICE SEEK SUSPECT IN BURGLARY AND ASSAULT

SUFFOLK, VA (December 3, 2010) – Suffolk Police are seeking a man that allegedly broke into a residence and assaulted a woman who was formerly his girlfriend.

Police advise that on November 29, Gene Alton Holloway, age 47, forced entry in a residence on Reno Street and assaulted his ex-girlfriend. The assault was only stopped when the victim's mother knocked on the window after being alerted by the person the victim was speaking with on the phone with the suspect broke in. The victim sustained minor injuries.

Warrants are on file for Holloway for one count of burglary with intent to commit Rape, one count Attempted Rape, one count of Abduction w/ intent to Defile, one count Assault and Batter and one count Destroy Property. Police do not have an address for Holloway except for the Saratoga area of the city.

Anyone that knows Holloway's is asked to contact Crime Line at 1-888-Lock-U-Up. When calling Crime Line callers do not have to give their names or appear in court. If a caller's information leads to an arrest, the caller could qualify for a reward of up to $1,000. Detective N. Boone is the lead investigator on the case.
