Police Hope a Winning Lottery Ticket is not so Lucky for a Burglary Suspect

SUFFOLK, VA (November 19, 2009) Suffolk Police are asking for assistance from the public in identifying a subject that cashed in a lottery ticket in hopes that they can solve a business burglary. On October 18, 2009 at approximately 6 a.m., an unknown suspect broke into the Holiday Food store located in the 3600 block of Pruden Boulevard. The only thing stolen during the burglary was lottery tickets.

Approximately forty minutes after the burglary, a black male entered a Kangaroo Express located in the 2800 block of Pruden Boulevard. That subject presented a winning scratch ticket which was exchanged for cash. That transaction was captured by the store's surveillance cameras.

Police are hoping that someone may be able to identify the subject, who has dreadlocks and was wearing a gray jacket. Video from the burglary scene indicated that the suspect was possibly operating a silver or light green, late model Chevy S-10 Blazer or GMC Jimmy.

Anyone that might be able to identify this subject or has further information on this case is asked to contact Crime Line at 1-888-Lock-U-Up. Detective John McCarley is the lead investigator.
