TEEN INJURED IN FALL FROM SKATEBOARD

SUFFOLK, VA (November 14, 2010) A Suffolk teen sustained serious injuries yesterday when he fell from a skateboard that was being pulled by a car. The accident happened Saturday around 4:30 p.m. in the 100 blk. of Raby Farm Rd.

The teen sustained head injuries when his head hit the pavement when falling from the skateboard. The injured teen was transported to Sentara Norfolk General Hospital. His current condition is unavailable.

The vehicle was being operated by a seventeen year old male at the time of the accident. Neither teen's name has been released.

The incident remains under investigation.
