SUFFOLK, VA (October 12, 2010) A Suffolk man has been charged with the brutal assault of his estranged wife early Sunday morning. Suffolk Police were called at approximately 12:30 a.m., in reference to screams heard from a downstairs apartment in the 400 blk. of Jackson St.

Officers responded and found forty-seven-year-old Kaye Eaton in her apartment. Eaton had been beaten about the face and head. Police also found an infant child in the residence. The baby was uninjured.

Eaton was taken to Sentara Norfolk General Hospital where she was listed in critical condition.

Detectives investigated the case throughout most of Sunday. Eaton's husband, Lee Andrew Donaldson, age 45, was arrested on an outstanding warrant for violation of a protective order, at his parent's residence in the 2100 blk. of Florida Ave. Donaldson was interviewed by investigators and later charged with aggravated malicious wounding and shoot, cut, stab or wound in connection with the assault on Eaton. He is currently being held at Western Tidewater Regional Jail with no bond.

Eaton's current status is unavailable.

Detective Carlos Gonzales is the lead investigator.
