SUFFOLK, VA (June 12, 2010) Suffolk Police are asking for assistance in identifying the suspects that broke into a local business. Police advise that on May 25 between 3 and 4 a.m., two subjects were caught on surveillance video breaking into the Happy Shopper, located in the 400 blk. of Carolina Rd. The subjects are seen breaking one of the front windows of the business.

It appears that one subject entered the business while the other remained outside. The subject that entered the business targeted the beer cooler, taking 12 packs of Steele Reserve, and the tobacco counter.

Police are releasing still photos from the surveillance video in hopes that someone can identify the suspects. Anyone that can provide information on this case is asked to Crime Line at 1-888-Lock-U-Up. When calling Crime Line, callers do not have to give their names or appear in court. If the caller's information leads to an arrest, the caller could qualify for a reward of up to $1,000. Detective J. Antinarelli is the lead investigator on this case.
