SUFFOLK MAN ARRESTED ON MULTIPLE CHARGES AFTER KILLING PUPPY

SUFFOLK, VA (October 7, 2020) Suffolk Police advise of the arrest of a Suffolk man on multiple charges following a domestic incident that occurred earlier this summer.

Malcom Justice Jones, age 23, of Suffolk, was arrested on October 6, 2020, following Direct Indictment on charges including Maim Kill Poison Animal or Fowl, Torture Dog or Cat Causing Death, Animal Cruelty, Violate Protective Order (10 counts), and Induce Others to Perjure, related to incidents that occurred during the early morning hours on July 25, 2020, in the 6800 block of Crittenden Road.

Upon preliminary investigation, it was determined that Jones allegedly had killed the 2-month old puppy during a domestic incident involving a known adult female. The puppy was then buried in the yard of the residence, and a necropsy was later performed to determine the cause of death.

Mug shot attached.
