JUVENILE FEMALE INJURED IN HIT AND RUN

SUFFOLK, VA (April 29, 2021) Suffolk Police have arrested a teen male following a hit and run accident that occurred early yesterday evening, Wednesday, April 28, 2021, in the South Suffolk neighborhood.

Emergency Communications was initially contacted at 7:57 p.m. advising of the accident with injuries that occurred in the 200 block of Spruce Street.

Upon arrival, Officers located an injured 8-year-old female laying in the roadway. She received emergency medical assessment and treatment by Suffolk Fire & Rescue personnel and was transported to a local hospital suffering from serious, but non-life threatening injuries.

Following preliminary investigation, it was determined that a male subject was observed traveling recklessly down Spruce Street on an orange dirt bike when the victim was struck by the dirt bike. The subject left the dirt bike in the roadway and then allegedly fled the scene on foot.

Raymond Jaquan Goodwyn, Jr., age 19, of Suffolk, was arrested on charges including Victim Injured – Driver Fails to Stop; Dump Trash, Etc. on Highway or Private Property; Reckless – General; and Operation of Motor-Driven Cycle on Public Highway Prohibited. Mug shot attached.
